If you are a UK taxpayer (see Note 2), Johari Foundation can reclaim tax back from HM Revenue and Customs on all gifts however large or small you have made. This is currently worth 25p plus an additional 3p transitional relief for donations up to 5 April 2011 for every £1 you give. All you need to do is complete the following –

Declaration

I want Johari Foundation to treat all donations that I make from the date of this declaration as Gift Aid donations, including all donations I have made in the past six years until I notify you otherwise.

Notes

You can cancel this Declaration at any time by notifying Johari Foundation

You must pay an amount of income tax and/or capital gains tax in each tax year at least equal to the tax that Johari Foundation will claim from HM Revenue and Customs on your Gift Aid donation(s). If in the future your circumstances change you can cancel your declaration.

If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self Assessment tax return.

If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift Aid tax relief, ask the Johari Foundation or, refer to donations by individuals on the HMRC website, www.hmrc.gov.uk.

Please notify Johari Foundation if you change your name or address.
